		ACTION
1.	Welcome and apologies: Apologies received from CL, GL, BB and FT.
2.	Approve minutes of last meeting: Minutes were read. Agreed the content was a true record, except for attendance. KR to correct and send a copy through to MB for the website. Proposed RT and seconded by JR.
3.	Matters arising not on the main agenda:
	KR updated the group that the Monopoly delivery was made in time for the town's Christmas festivities. All sellers had received their games. KR has a stock of about 10 boxes of six games which will be available to groups if required. No updates from sellers on how the games have gone this time. DB had raised an invoice for the Boston Stump contribution but hadn't received this	KD to date. KR to speak to the Stump for an update.	KR
4.	Running things:
	A. LTO Update:  DB provided a financial update. Bank balance as at 9 th January - £69,979.40.
	The final payment from Local Trust had now been received and confirmation of Close Off received. Michele Jolly had signed the official letter.

to what has been produced by another area and will be starting the third newsletter shortly. Updates made to the website and Facebook page as normal. KR and RT had met with FT ahead of the meeting for an update on the Celebration Event. Work on the Central Park repairs have now commenced and the hope is that the main grassed area will be available for events from June. FT had explained there is some uncertainty on the full budget for events and discussed options about a separate Legacy Event or focusing on the Beach Event. The group discussed the options and preference was to focus on the Beach Event as was a long-standing BBL funded project. KR to update FT. KR C. Confirmation of Community Chest Panel KR thanked panel members for their contribution to the Doodlepoll. Best date was 30 th January 2024. There had been a large number of applications so the pack will be circulated well in advance of the meeting for the group to review ahead of the meeting.
